

Luke O. Brooks

Partner

“Our approach is practical and effective. We pursue and expose the truth to recover investor losses.”

Luke Brooks was on the trial team that won a jury verdict in Jaffe v. Household Int’l, against one of the world’s largest subprime lenders.

Luke O. Brooks is a partner in the Firm’s securities litigation practice group.

Mr. Brooks externed for the Honorable Vaughn R. Walker, United States District Court, Northern District of California.

Mr. Brooks focuses primarily on securities fraud litigation on behalf of individual and institutional investors, including state and municipal pension funds, Taft-Hartley funds, and private retirement and investment funds. Mr. Brooks was on the trial team that won a jury verdict in Jaffe v. Household Int’l, No. 02-C-5893 (N.D. Ill.), a securities fraud class action against one of the world’s largest subprime lenders. Although the litigation is ongoing, the Household verdict is expected to yield in excess of $1 billion for the plaintiff class.

Office

San Francisco
T: (415) 288-4545
E: LukeB@rgdlaw.com

Practices

Securities

Education

University of San Francisco, J.D., 2000

- Member, University of San Francisco Law Review

University of Massachusetts at Amherst, B.A., 1997

Admissions

California

United States District Courts for the Northern, Central and Southern Districts of California

United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois