

Institutional Clients

More institutional investors trust us to monitor their portfolio and manage their securities litigation than any other firm in our field. Our institutional clients range from state and municipal retirement funds to Taft-Hartley Multi-Employer Funds, and private domestic financial institutions to international megafunds. These clients rely on us to achieve the largest possible recoveries, and know we have the resources, talent, judgment and experience to bring cases to a favorable resolution.

Whether you are interested in our secure, proprietary portfolio monitoring program or the recovery of lost assets through litigation, we mobilize our teams to achieve the best results. Find out more about what our clients say and why we're the right choice.
